

201—45.5(906) Voluntary return to institution. A parolee may be returned to an Iowa department of corrections institution for a period not to exceed 90 days for treatment or further training, provided a voluntary return agreement is approved by the district department and the warden or superintendent of said institution and is signed by them and by the parolee prior to the return.